

WORD	EXAMPLE	TRANSLATION
Emerge (to come into view; to become apparent)	-the sun emerged from behind the clouds -later it emerged that the judge had employed an illegal immigrant
Beam (a line of light shining from the sun, a lamp etc.; a wide happy smile)	-he stepped through the doorway and turned the beam of light on her. -she looked at him and beamed proudly.
Bolt (a metal bar that you slide across a door or window to fasten it; lightning that appears as a white line in the sky)	-there was a sound of soft footsteps, of chains being loosened and bolts drawn back. -the atmosphere darkened and lightning bolts split the sky.
Clad (wearing a particular kind of clothing; covered with)	-I blushed, got on my bicycle, went home and returned more suitably clad. -we got a glimpse of the snow-clad hills in the distance
Sneak (to hide sth and take it somewhere or give it to someone secretly; to quickly and secretly steal sth unimportant or of little value)	-I snuck (US) her a note. -we used to sneak cigarettes from Dad
Swing (if emotions or opinions swing they change quickly to the opposite of what they were; to drop in)	-he often suffers from mood swings -maybe I'd better swing by her place.
Jib (a small sail in front of the large sail on a boat; to be unwilling to do or accept sth - GB)	-the sailor adjusted the jib in order to veer north. -he jibbed at the price I asked for.
Drag (if time or an event drags, it seems to go very slowly because nothg interesting is happening)	-what to do when the school holidays drag on.
Grab (to get some food or sleep quickly because you are busy)	-hang on while I grab a cup of coffee.
Leap (to increase quickly and a by a large amount; if your heart leaps, you feel a sudden surprise, happiness or excitement)	-the price of gas leapt 15% overnight. -my heart leaped when I saw them at the airport.
Bow (to bend the top part of your body forward in order to show respect; to bend)	-they bowed and waited for the mayor to speak first. -the trees bowed in the wind.
Sling (to throw or put sth somewhere with a careless movement and some force; to make sb leave or go to a place - inf)	-sling me the keys if you don't mind. -I got slung out of my flat when I couldn't pay the rent, and wound up in a hostel.

WORD	EXAMPLE	TRANSLATION
Emerge (to come into view; to become apparent)	-the sun emerged from behind the clouds -later it emerged that the judge had employed an illegal immigrant	( émerger : sortir au-dessus de la surface de l'eau) – sortir – il est apparu que
Beam (a line of light shining from the sun, a lamp etc.; a wide happy smile)	-he stepped through the doorway and turned the beam of light on her. -she looked at him and beamed proudly.	Il a franchi le seuil de la porte et a dirigé le rayon de lumière / faisceau lumineux / la torche sur elle Elle le regarda et arbora un large sourire de fierté
Bolt (a metal bar that you slide across a door or window to fasten it; lightning that appears as a white line in the sky)	-there was a sound of soft footsteps, of chains being loosened and bolts drawn back. -the atmosphere darkened and lightning bolts split the sky.	On entendit un bruit de pas légers, de chaînes qu'on desserrait puis de verrous qu'on tirait. L'atmosphère s'assombrit et des éclairs déchirèrent le ciel
Clad (wearing a particular kind of clothing; covered with)	-I blushed, got on my bicycle, went home and returned more suitably clad. -we got a glimpse of the snow-clad hills in the distance	Je rougis, montai sur mon vélo, rentrai chez moi et revins habillé de manière plus appropriée On apercevait au loin les collines recouvertes de neige / enneigées
Sneak (to hide sth and take it somewhere or give it to someone secretly; to quickly and secretly steal sth unimportant or of little value)	-I snuck (US) her a note. -we used to sneak cigarettes from Dad	je lui ai glissé un mot en douce avant on piquait / chipait des cigarettes à papa
Swing (if emotions or opinions swing they change quickly to the opposite of what they were; to drop in)	-he often suffers from mood swings -maybe I'd better swing by her place.	Il souffre souvent de sautes d'humeur Peut-être que je ferais mieux de faire un saut / passer chez elle
Jib (a small sail in front of the large sail on a boat; to be unwilling to do or accept sth - GB)	-the sailor adjusted the jib in order to veer north. -he jibbed at the price I asked for.	Le marin ajusta / régla le foc afin de virer vers le nord Il rechigna devant le prix que je lui demandais
Drag (if time or an event drags, it seems to go very slowly because nothg interesting is happening)	-what to do when the school holidays drag on.	Que faire quand les vacances scolaires s'étirent en longueur
Grab (to get some food or sleep quickly because you are busy)	-hang on while I grab a cup of coffee.	Attends moi pendant que je prends un café vite fait / en vitesse
Leap (to increase quickly and a by a large amount; if your heart leaps, you feel a sudden surprise, happiness or excitement)	-the price of gas leapt 15% overnight. -my heart leaped when I saw them at the airport.	Le prix du gaz / de l'essence a fait un bond de 15% en l'espace d'une nuit Mon cœur a fait un bond quand je les ai vus à l'aéroport / j'ai eu un coup au cœur
Bow (to bend the top part of your body forward in order to show respect; to bend)	-they bowed and waited for the mayor to speak first. -the trees bowed in the wind.	Ils s'inclinèrent et attendirent que le maire parle en premier Les arbres ployaient / se courbaient dans le vent
Sling (to throw or put sth somewhere with a careless movement and some force; to make sb leave or go to a place – inf)	-sling me the keys if you don't mind. -I got slung out of my flat when I couldn't pay the rent, and wound up in a hostel.	Lance / file moi les clés On m'a flanqué à la porte de

